Editorial/Reviews

For quiet elegance that is quaint, the Caribbean Court Hotel in Vero Beach is our number one choice. This is a perfect place for businesses or groups to have a retreat or meeting for their employees or executives. This is also a great setting for a wedding or a family reunion. Everything is available, good food, good lodging, great pool and garden area. nan@ Boomertowne.com

A jewel to be discovered. Here you will discover a private corner of the world where you can enjoy a pampered weekend of blissful relaxation and sumptuous cuisine. In addition to an inviting atmosphere, the rooms are also designed for optimal comfort... you have everything you need to forget your "other" life. Carolyn Gardner's Florida Escapes

More for couples looking for romance than the area's other beachy keen hotels... Frommer's Florida 2008 Treasure Coast Accommodations Review Exquisite country French cooking, a comprehensive wine list and white-glove complement the fine linens and imported china at this romantic standout... Maison Martinique is in the charming Caribbean Court Hotel. Frommer's – Florida 2008 Treasure Coast Where to Dine.

Martinique's beachside elegance wows diners. Dining Out, Scripps Treasure Coast Newspapers

Maison Martinique defines fine dining and is probably the best restaurant in Vero Beach. Sheila (O'Meara Lowenstein) Says

Alluring and appealing, like that song you can't get out of your head, the romantic scene beckons you to come, stay and enjoy. And charming it is.... There is now an abundance of arches, balconies and flowering vines, including vibrant blue thumbergias, rich red bougainvilleas, purple passion vine and white blooms of Confederate Jasmine. Vero Beach Magazine.com
